

Grizzlies remain unbeaten

32 Bears 12 Spartans

In the Lancaster Recreation Girls Bantam division, the unbeaten Bears (4-0) beat the Spartans (1-3). The Bears used 20 first half points to defeat the Bears. The Bears remained unbeaten on the season with a 33-12 victory.

The Bears offensive attack was led by Abbie Benham's game high 14 points. Ally Milkas had six points. Ava Achtyl scored four points. Amelia Powers and Kathryn Weidman rounded out the scoring for the Bears with two points.

Wilhemina Weidman led the way for the Spartans with six points. Madison Handley scored four points. Grace Jachimiak chipped in with two points in the Spartans defeat.

28 Bulldogs 19 Huskies

The Bulldogs and Huskies battled hard throughout the game. The Bulldogs (3-1) were able to shut down the Huskies (0-4) in the game with a total team effort on defense. The Bulldogs upended the Huskies 28-19.

The Bulldogs were led by Stephanie Herrnreiter and her 12 points. Madison Handley contributed with eight points. Hailey Meegan scored six points. Mattea Gill added two points in the victory.

The Huskies used eight points from Claudia Frys. Laura Walter netted six points. Allie Basher and Julia Benham scored three points and two points respectively in the Huskies loss.

41 Bulls 25 Nuggets

The Eastern Conference Bulls (2-2) handed the Western Conference Nuggets (0-4) a 41-25 defeat. The Bulls used consistent scoring in both the first and second halves to beat the Nuggets.

The Bulls used scoring from six different players in the game. The Bulls were led by Seamus Furlong's game high 16 points. Mitchell Klima and Nicholas Barberio played key roles in the offense with 12 points apiece. Michael Marcezin and Zachary Crowe scored two points. Evan Schaefer tallied one point in the Bulls win.

Derek Walter's 11 points led the scoring for the Nuggets. Steven Blatto threw in six points. Bailey Moskal helped out with four points. Joshua Baldwin and Riley Quinn each had two points in the Nuggets defeat.

39 Grizzlies 33 Blazers

The matchup between the Grizzlies (4-0) and the Eastern Conference Blazers (3-1) was highly contested throughout. Each team entered the day play unbeaten. The Grizzlies clawed their way to a 39-33 victory leaving them only undefeated team remaining.

The Grizzlies Conor Mahony led the way with 12 points. Lucas Jachimik contributed with eight points. Jacob Andolina and Matthew Jandzinski split 12 points evenly. Jacob Sebastian had five points. Collin Rice rounded out the scoring with 2 points for the Grizzlies.

Aiden Zerkowski's game high 20 points led the way for the Blazers. Brandon Kostek added seven points. Henry Hansen helped out with six points in the Blazers loss.

33 Braves 27 Thunder

The Eastern Conference Braves (3-1) defeated the Western Conference Thunder (2-2). The Braves used a consistent scoring output in both the first and second halves to win 33 to 27 over the Thunder.

The Braves were led by the brother combination of Gianluca Fulciniti and Dominic Fulciniti teaming up for 27 points, scoring 14 and 13 points respectively. Will Kocalski netted four points. Ryan Maloney scored two points in the victory.

The Thunders scoring was led by Maxwell Molino and his 11 points. Jason Mansell meshed 10 points. Jacob Elias added six points in the Thunders defeat.

38 Bobcats 21 Clippers

The Eastern Conference Bobcats (1-3) were able to get their first win of the season by defeating the Western Conference Clippers (1-3). The Bobcats took the lead early on in the game and never looked back. The Bobcats were able to clip the Clippers 38 to 21.

The Bobcats offensive production was generated by Trevor Reformat and his 19 points. Alann Au produced eight points. Adam Bagley claimed six points. Caiden Campese and Donovan Metz scored two points apiece. Ethan Moore added to the offense with one point.

The Clippers got eight points from Gage Smith. Jackson Jerebko and Maximilian Harison each had four points. Brenden Kapsiak and Evan Mueller chipped in with two pints. Ian Johnson scored 1 point in the Clippers loss.